Greetings Idaho Basketball Players!

I wanted to personally invite you to attend the Idaho adidas Junior Phenom camp this April, which will be hosted by the Idaho Select Basketball program. This is an exciting time for the Junior Phenom program. We have heard so many great things about the players in Idaho. That is the reason we chose to expand to your state for the first time.

The regional camps serve several purposes. Not only is it a great opportunity for young basketball players to further develop their skills, it is also the only way in which a player can qualify for the National Junior Phenom Camp in San Diego this summer. I would like to emphasize that if you are interested in attending the national camp, you must qualify through the Idaho adidas Junior Phenom camp in Boise this April. There are no exceptions.

We know that you will enjoy the camp and the many benefits that it brings to its players. We trust that the Idaho Select program will make it the best experience possible.

If you have any questions about the national camp, such as how to qualify or how we operate, please do not hesitate to contact me. I will be happy to answer any questions or address any concerns that you may have.

Sincerely,

Joe Keller
